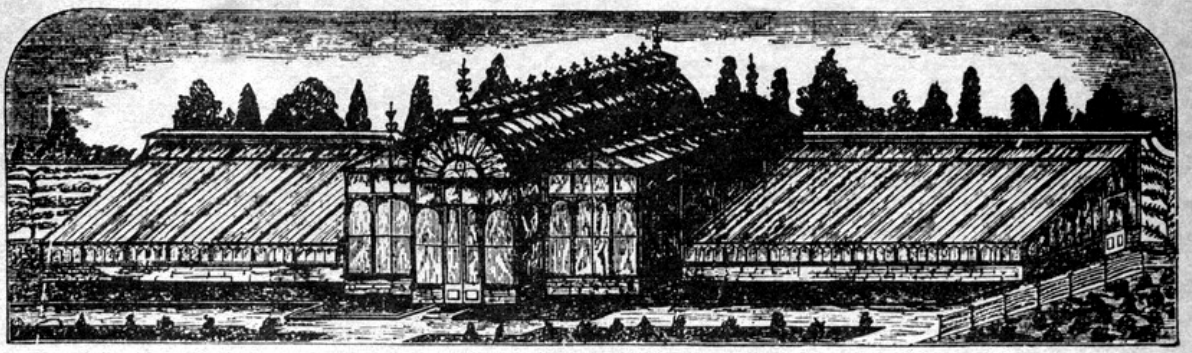
GREENHOUSES & HOT HOUSES

Illustrations from *La scoperta dell'acqua calda, Carlo Manfredi, Maggioli S.p.A, 2013

HENRY ORMSON,

HORTICULTURAL BUILDER AND HOT-WATER APPARATUS ENGINEER,

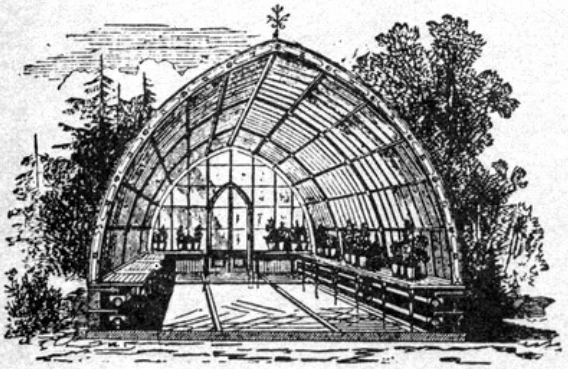
STANLEY BRIDGE, KING'S ROAD, CHELSEA, LONDON, S.W.

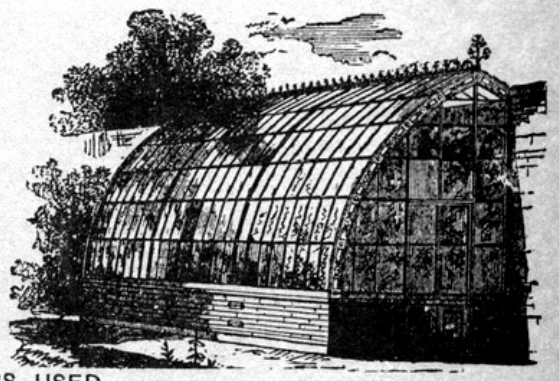


THE BEST BUILT HOTHOUSES AND CONSERVATORIES.

Surveys made and Gentlemen waited on in any part of the Country. Catalogues, Plans, and Estimates supplied gratis on application

UNSURPASSED BOILERS AND HEATING APPARATUS.





NO BENT GLASS USED.

WOOD and METAL CONSERVATORIES, GREENHOUSES, PIT-LIGHTS, VINERIES, &c.

Messrs. F., L. & Co. beg to draw particular attention to their CURVILINEAR PRIZE HOUSES, constructed on their PATENT TUBULAR SYSTEM. Unrivalled for utility, strength, lightness, and elegance. NO BENT GLASS USED.

FERNERIES, ROCKWORK, ORNAMENTAL BRIDGES, and TILE PAVING.

HOT-WATER APPARATUS FIXED COMPLETE.

FLETCHER, LOWNDES & CO. (Limited),

13A, GREAT GEORGE STREET, WESTMINSTER, S.W.

17. John Evelyn's Greenhouse Furnace, 1664. I The whole greenhouse and furnace in perspective. II The furnace air-pipes. III The whole stove or furnace. IV The ash-hearth. Note thermometer (7). [Kalendarium Hortense, 1691]. Glass Houses, M. Woods & A Warren, 1988, p30.

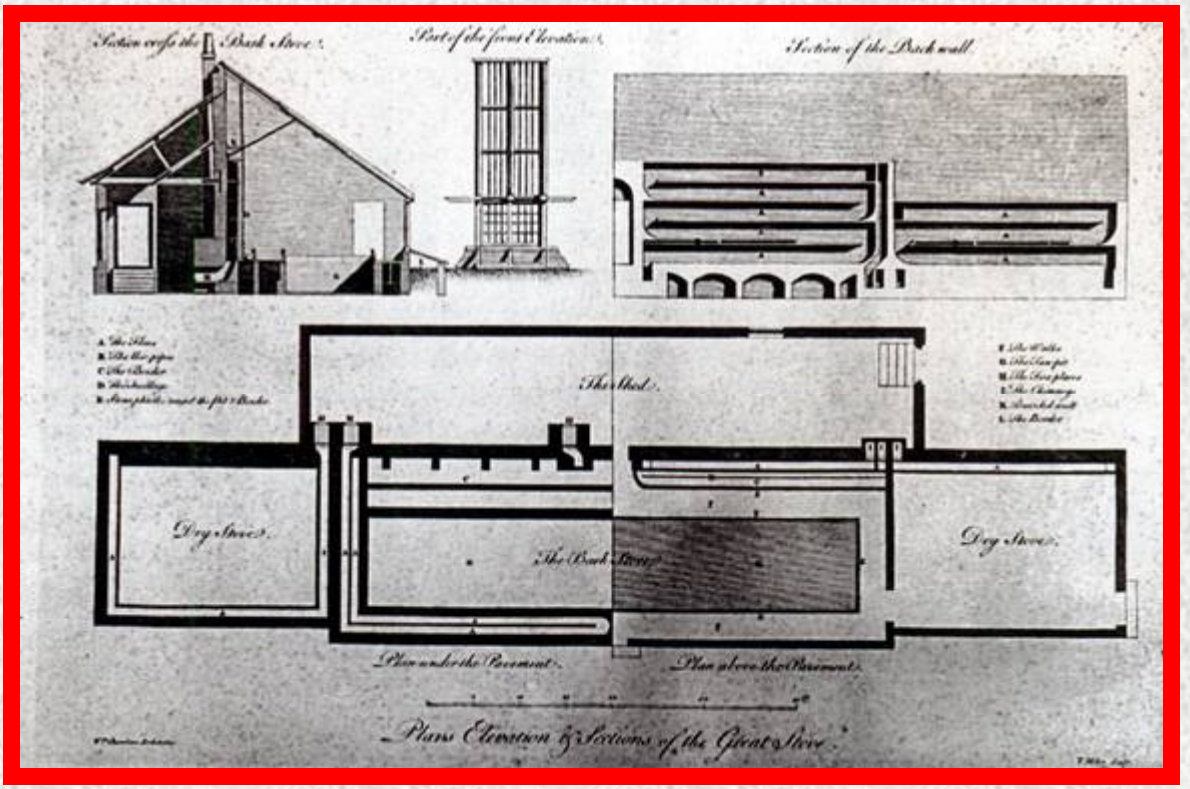
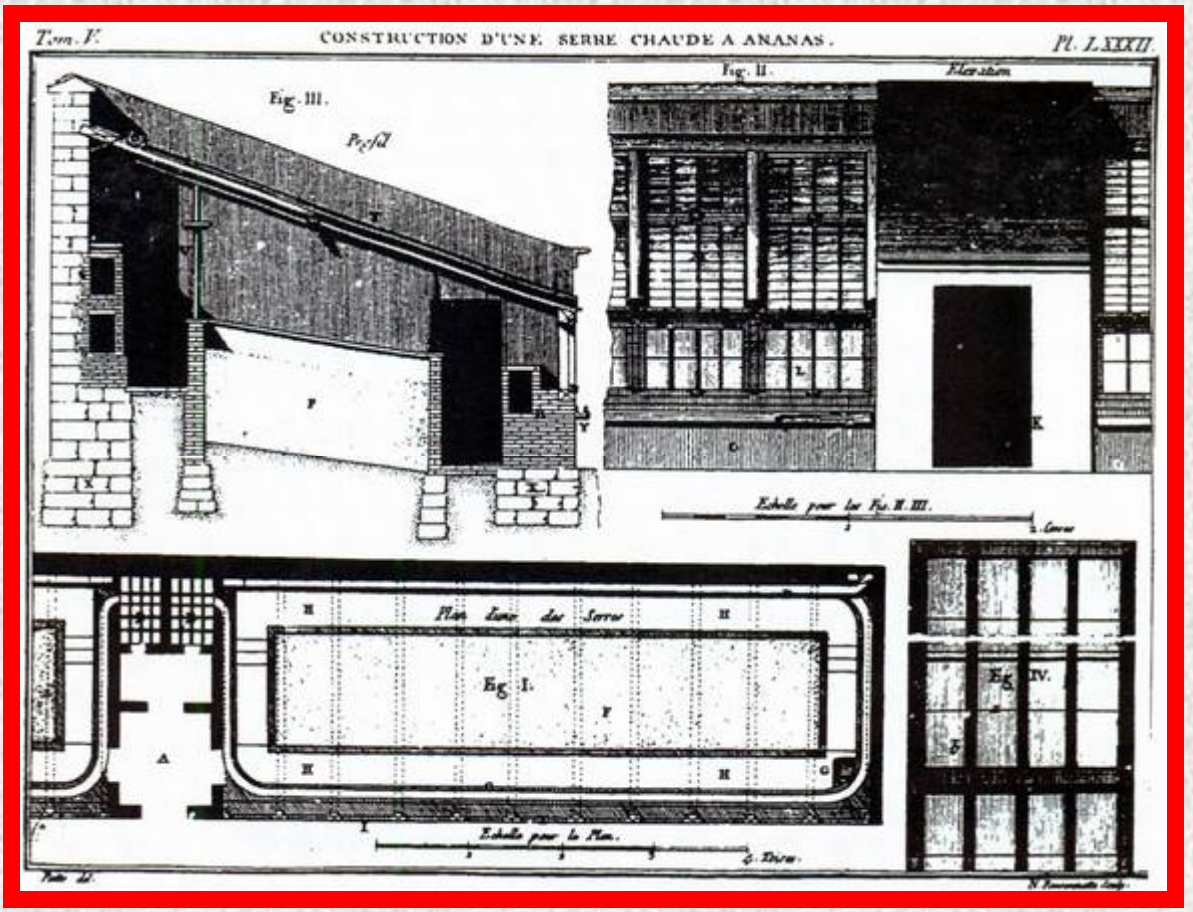
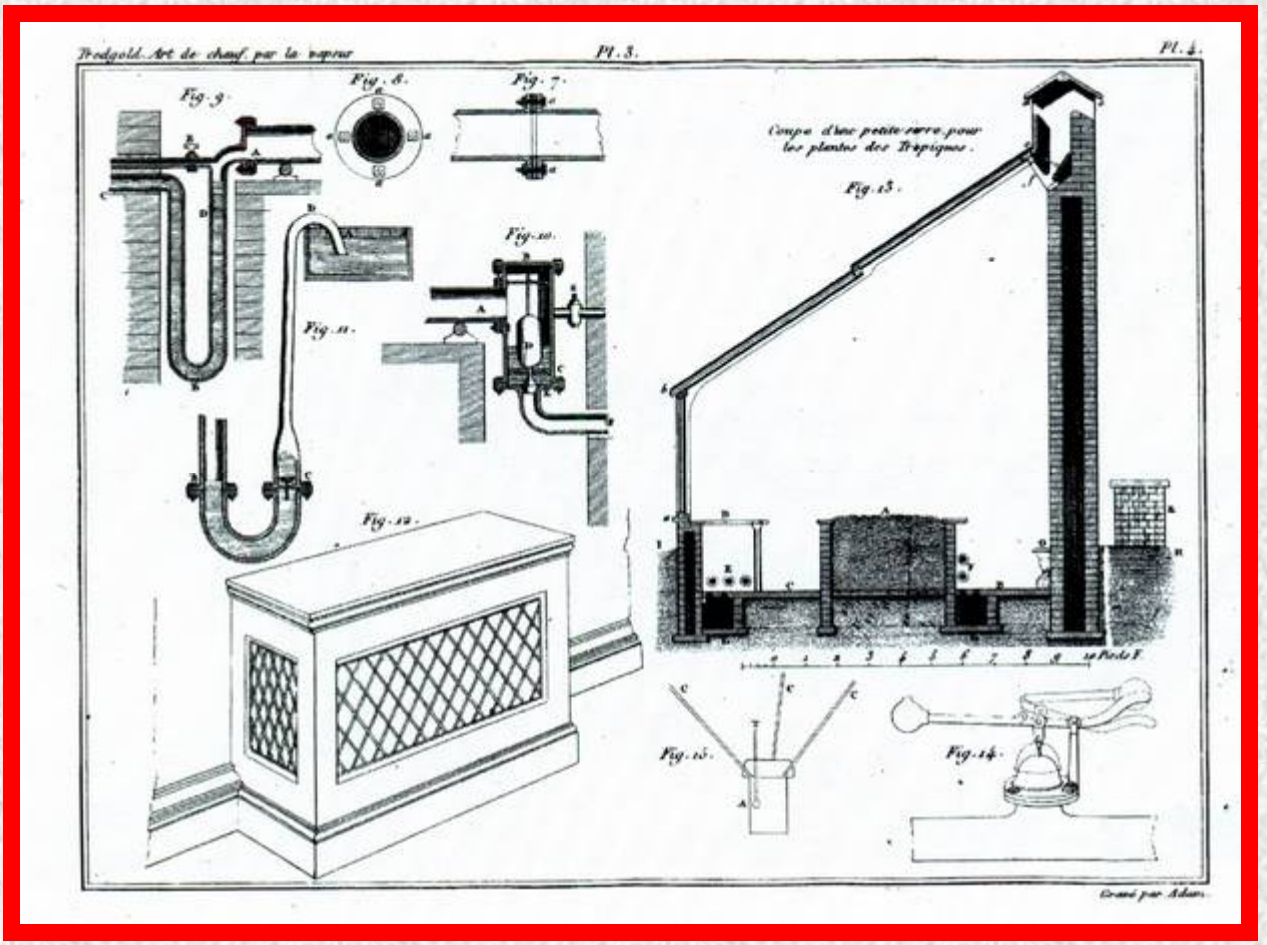
This heating is actually 17th century



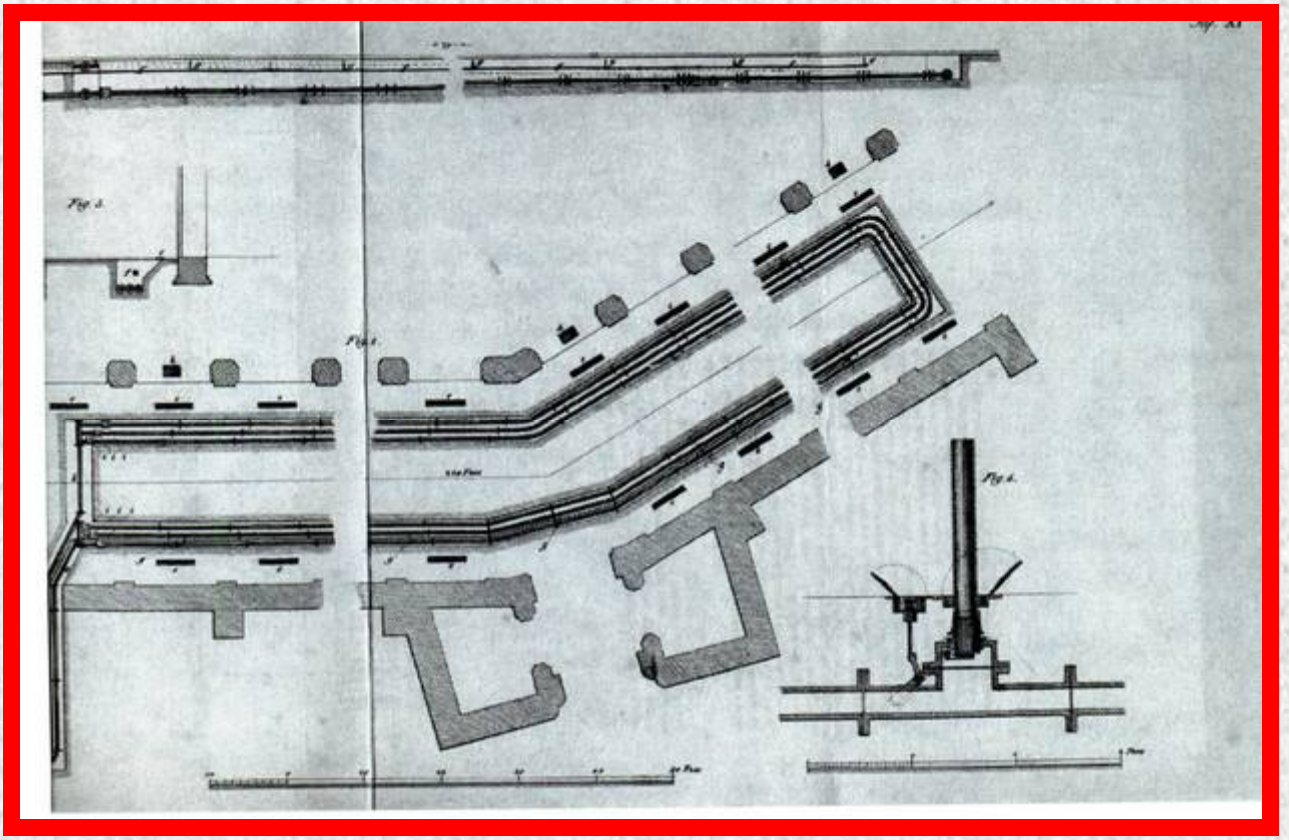
The Great Stove (Conservatory), Kew 1763*



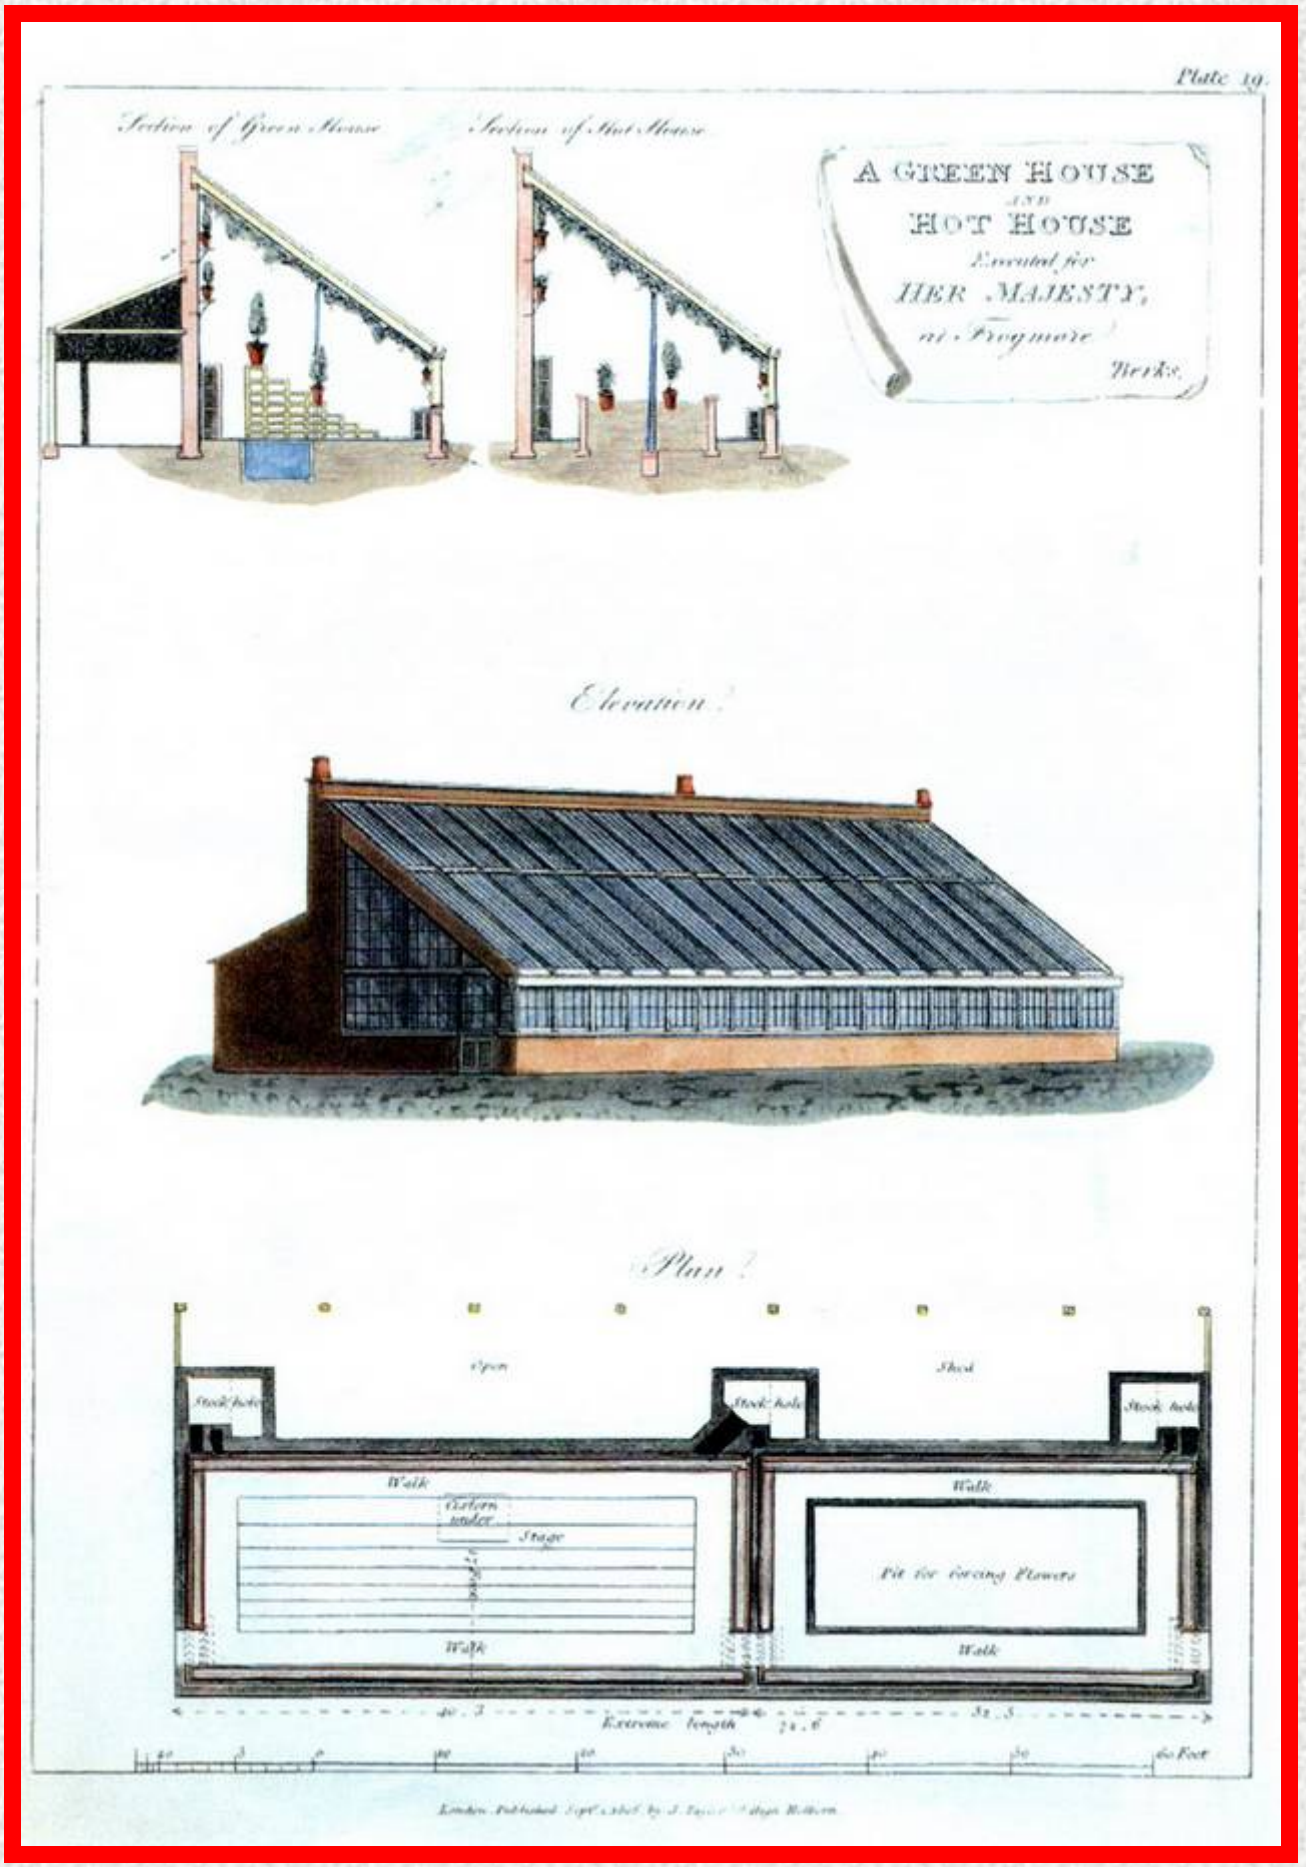
French hot house warmed by chimney flues 1751*



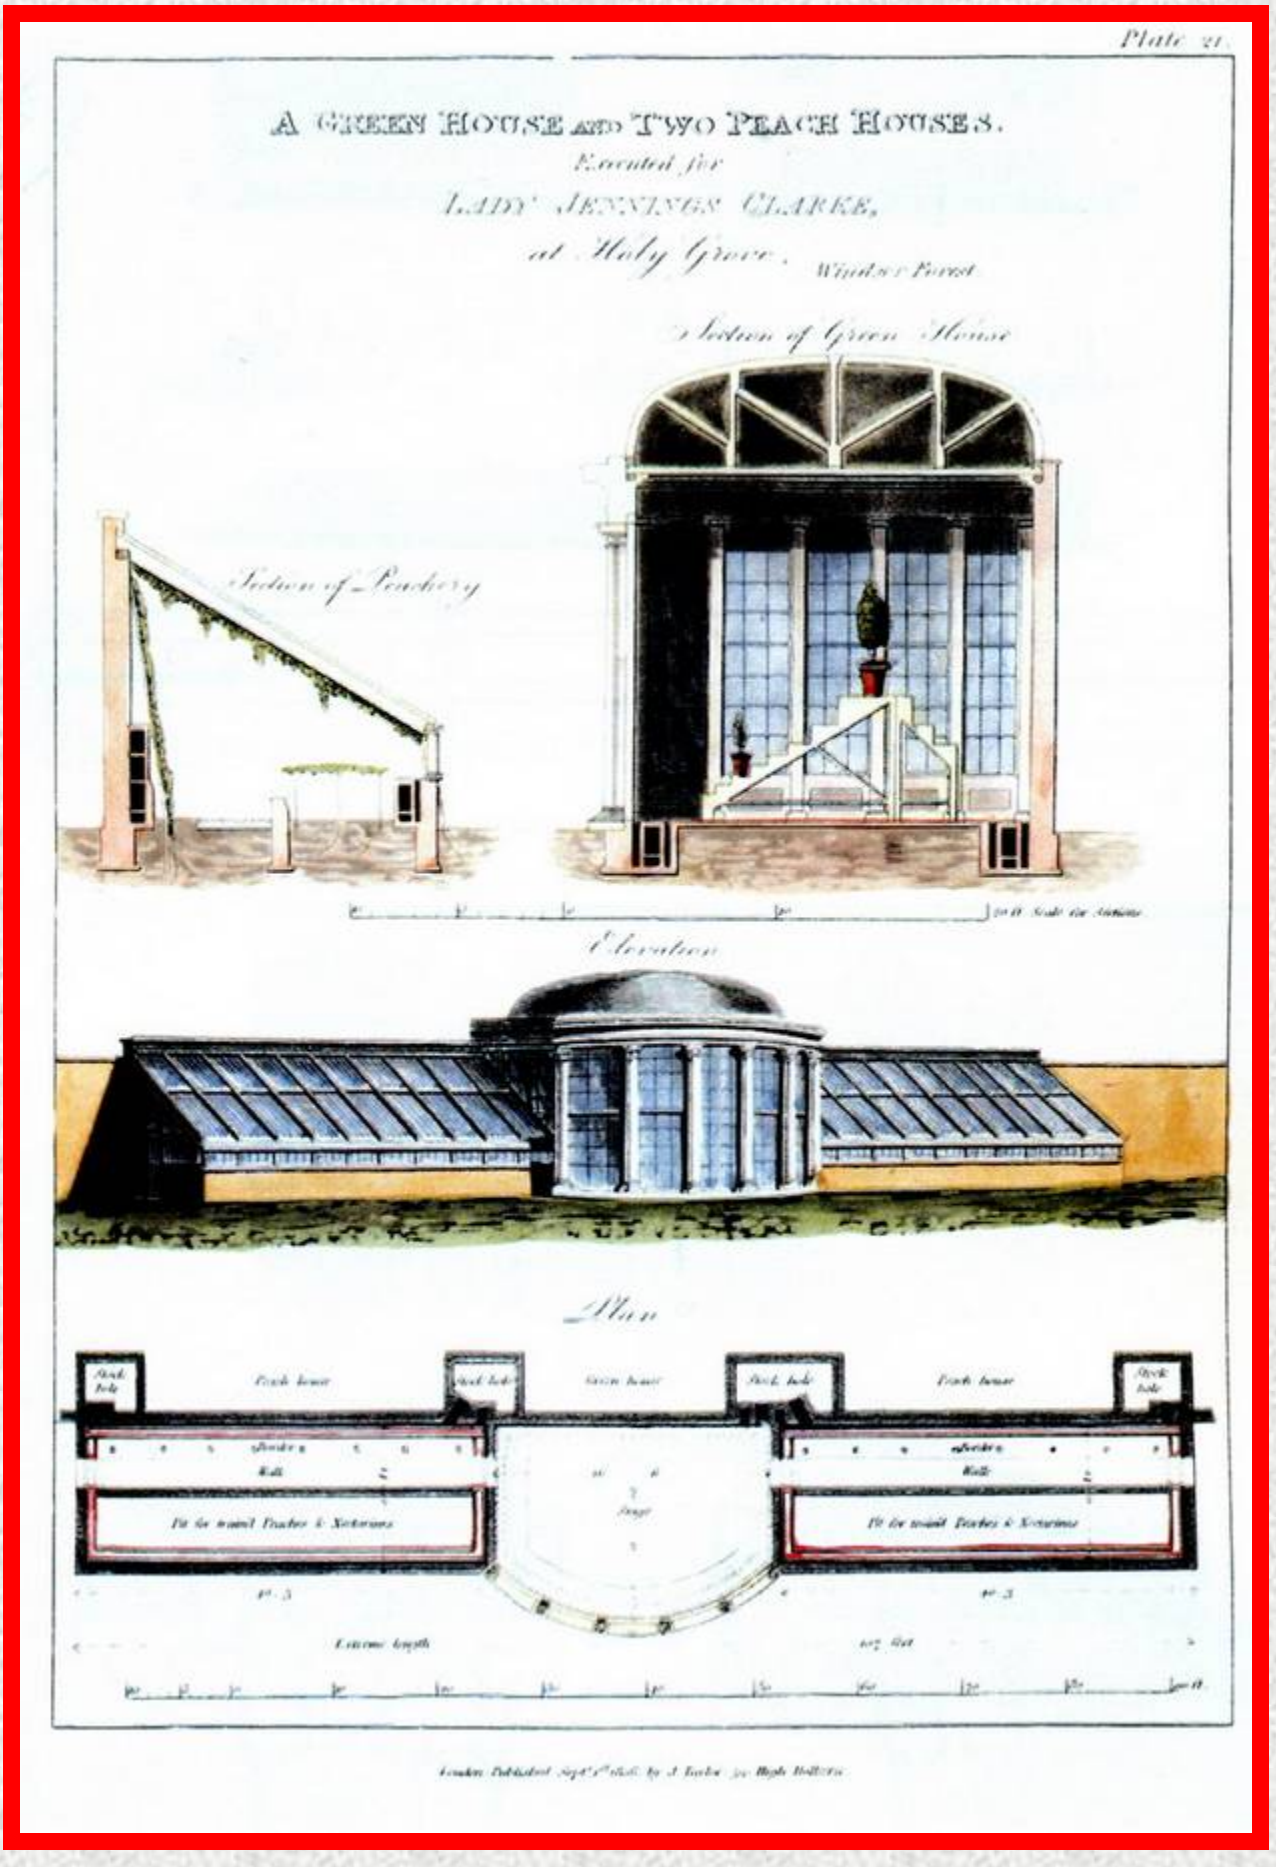
Tredgold's steam system for a hot house 1825*



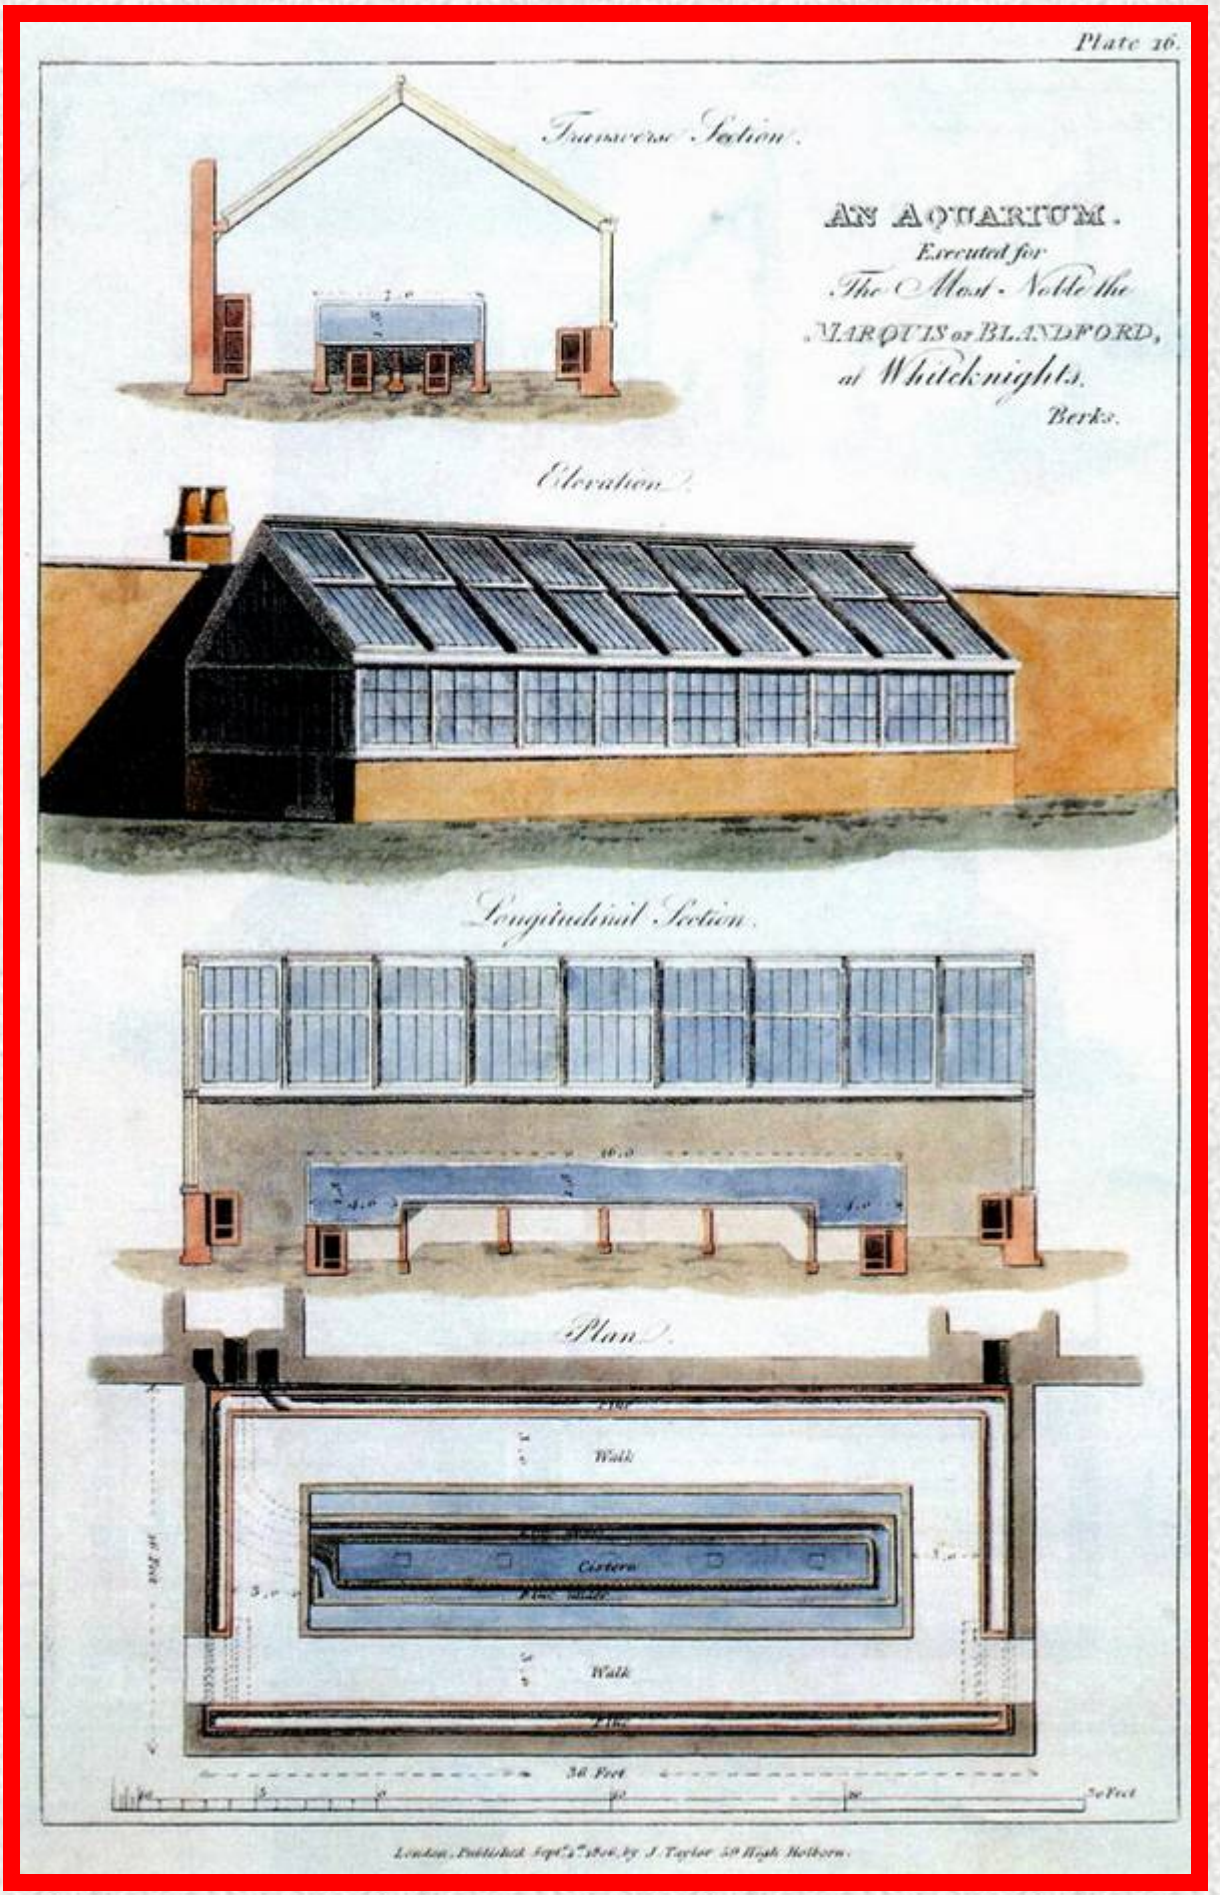
Water heating installed in the Royal hot house at Windsor Castle 1837*



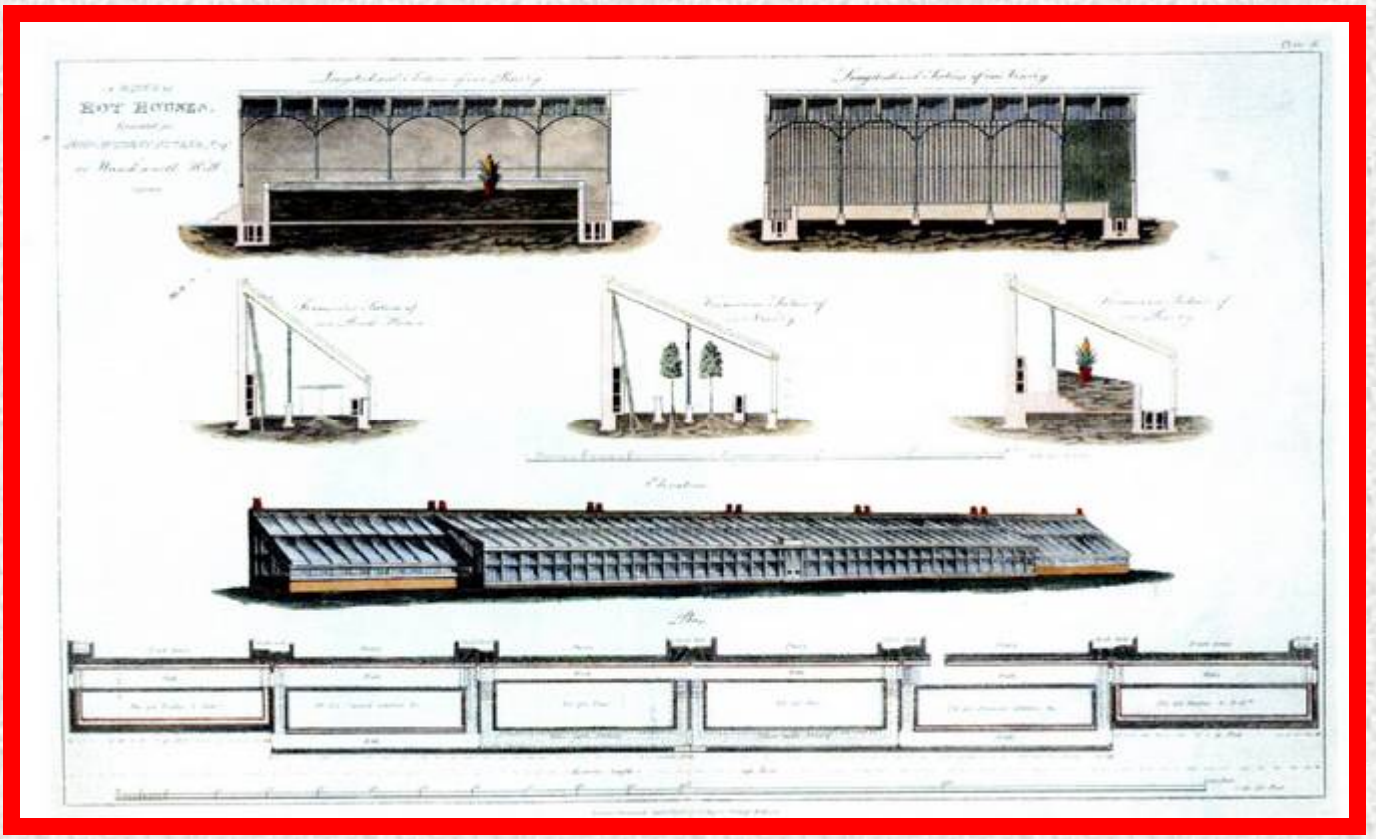
Greenhouse & Hot House at Frogmore, Berks 1823*



A greenhouse with a peach house at either end, Windsor Forest 1823*



Aquarium for the Marquis of Blanford, 1823*



Vinery of 1823*