A Visit to Tredegar House in Newport, Wales

Tredegar House is considered one of the architectural wonders of Wales and one of the most significant late 17th-century houses in the British Isles. Situated within 90 acres of beautiful gardens and parkland this red brick house, now a National Trust property, was for more than 500 years the home to one of the greatest Welsh families, the Morgans, later the Lords Tredegar. The Heritage Group thanks Sam Johnson for organising the visit, Cardiff University for providing their minibus and driver, and Edith Blennerhassett and Arups Dublin for sponsoring lunch.
